

2017-2018

Our MISSION is to cultivate leadership and life-strategy skills by teaching emerging leaders in the real estate and land use industries how the Southeast Florida region gets built.

WHY PARTICIPATE:

- Collaborate with real estate professionals in problem solving;
- Interface with like-minded professionals;
- Engage with top speakers from every facet of land use in a small group environment;
- Establish relationships with a diverse group of professionals; and
- Expand your perspectives on the development process as well as issues and opportunities facing the Southeast Florida region.

WHO PARTICIPATES:

- Individuals working in the real estate industry and related fields;
- Mid-career leaders slated for future leadership roles;
- Those who have a minimum seven years of real estate experience;
- Those committed to community service and civic engagement;
- Those who have a vision for the future of Southeast Florida; and
- The program is open to ULI members and non-members alike.

WHEN DO YOU PARTICIPATE:

Organized around eight full-day seminars consisting of:

- Presentations
- Panel Discussions
- Property Tours
- Small Group Activities
- Other Activities which provide participants access to industry leaders, elected officials, and recognized experts in real estate and land use.

During the course of this inaugural eight-month program, participants will have an opportunity to provide leadership on a critical Southeast Florida regional issue through a Leadership Project (LP). Working in teams, participants will be responsible for sharing their expertise and advice to develop recommendations for a sponsor organization.
